ISHLANA WINS AT GOOD ODDS

A CONTRACTOR AND TAXA CONTRACTOR OF THE POST OF THE PROPERTY OF THE POST OF TH

Nameoki, the Favorite, Outrun From the Start-April Shower and Mabel Richardson First at Long Prices-Three Favorites Succeed at Jamalea.

With the success of three favorites and three other winners, which in each instance provided a killing on a small scale, the layers got a raking fore and aft at Jamaica yesterday afternoon. The beautiful weather made the outing attractive for 12,000 enthusiasts, who were on the alert for good things in plenty. The track was very fast and at the same time so dusty that it was a positive hardship for both horses and jockeys. Several watering carts are needed right away, else there may be an accident.

What looked to be a really sure thing was Frank Farrell's Bassetlaw colt Nameoki in the Greenfield Stakes, for two-year-olds, at five and a half furlongs. With Fuller up, the layers' first offer of evens on the Farrell colt was fairly eaten up by the big bettors, the closing quotation being 4 to 5. There was also a stiff play on Albert Simons's Agnes Brennan, her price falling from 4 to 1 to 16 to 5, while the Lotos Stable's Ishlana. at 8 to 1, was the tip that was circulated among the clubhouse patrons as early as the lunch hour. They were sent away to a good start, but before the first furlong vas covered Nameoki was outrun and fell back into a series of pockets. Anyway 60 to 1, with a midget stable boy up, cut out a fast pace, with Agnes Brennan close behind her. At the far turn Anyway chucked it up, but Ishlana came on with a world of speed and, catching Agnes Brennan at the last sixteenth, beat her a length and a half. ridden out. Shortcake, 30 to 1, beat Name-oki for third money by a head. The Farrell colt was poorly handled. Fuller going to the whip in the backstretch, when it was enwhip in the backstretch, when it was entirely unnecessary. Ishlana's time was 198. April Shower, backed down to 9 to 1, pulled of a neat trick when he took the handicap for all ages at a mile and a sixteenth. G. Whitter was a receding first choice at 7 to 5, while Daisy Green was reduced to 9 to 5. April Shower, who had a big pull at the weights, sailed out in front at a gait that made the rest stretch their necks. Daisy Green tried to go to him unsuccessfully in the lirst three-quarters of a mile and then G. Whittier attempted to run over him in the stretch, where, however, April Shower had something left and won in a drive from little Callahan by a length and a half in 1147-3-5. G. Whittier was eight lengths before Daisy Green.

A new record for five and a half furiongs, 107.4-5, was hung up by Divination, the two-year-old Horoscope—White Rose filly, who ran for the first time in the colors of her new owner, Andrew Miller. She was a probibitive favorite in the first race at 7 to 10, with a strong play about R. H. McCarter Potter's Thistle Heather, who dropped to threes. Divination burned up the track with her lightning pace. The Tammany crowd set up a sudden yell when F. J. Lantry's Mohican made a bold bid for the lead at the stretch turn, but the favorite drew away easily, while Mohican stopped. Then Thistle Heather came up and forced Gannon to ride Divination out to the end, where she won by a length, with Thistle Heather two lengths in front of Petunia, 10 to 1.

Osgood, the choice in the second race, for platers, at a mile and seventy yards, showed his heels to a big field and had a length and a half over Ringdove, second in favor, at the end. Albany Girl, 8 to 1, was third. The time was 147.1-5.

Syrlin, another favorite, came home on the bit in the fifth race, a selling event, at six end. Albany Girl, 8 to 1, was third. The time was 147 1-5.

Syrlin, another favorite, came home on the bit in the fifth race, a selling event, at six furlongs. Robertson handled him patiently, and the old horse had five lengths to spare at the wire, where he was timed in 1:14. Our Nugget, backed down to sixes, secured the place from Choate, a 100 to 1 shot, by a head. In the last event, for maidens, at a mile and 70 yards, Mabel Richardson was hammered down from 20 to 1 to eights. Hicks rode her to perfection, for after The Dancer, 20 to 1, had tired of making the running the Halma filly bounded to the front and galloped home five lengths before J. E. Madden's Thoughtless, 25 to 1, who beat The Dancer by a neck for second money in the last fifty yards. Polite, the favorite, and King Carter, the second choice, were soundly beaten. the second choice, were soundly beaten. The winner's time was 1:47. FIRST BACE.

SETBACK FOR FORT ERIE BOUTS. Manager Herman Found Gullty of Promoting a Prizefight-He Will Appeal. BUFFALO, July 28.-Apparently the pugitistic star of Fort Erie has set, at least for some time to come. Magistrate Ernest Cruikshank delivered a solar plexus punch to the glove game in Fort Erie to-day when he found John H. Herman, manager of the International Athletic Club, guilty of promoting a prize fight, which is contrary to the laws of Canada, which allow boxing contests, but not prizefighting. Herman was arraigned on the charge of violating thelaws of Canada in promoting the Root-Gardner battle at Fort Frie on the afternoon of July 4. Sentence was deferred pending an appeal to the Court of Appeal of the Province of Ontario. The penalty is a fine of $50 to $500 or one year in prison, or both.

The decision rendered by Magistrate Cruikshank is peculiar, as when Herman was arraigned on the charge of violating the laws in promoting the Erne-Zurbrick bout, the case against him was dismissed. Then when rearraigned for the Root-Gardner offence, he was found guility. The Magistrate contends that the Root-Gardner bout was a prizefight, but the Erne-Zurbrick battle was a boxing match. The same evidence was given in both cases and by the same witnesses. Chief Griffin and High Constable Dowd.

"The International club's charter will protect me when the Court of Appeals sees the case," said Herman after the trial. "This is mere knocking. The game here will continue and this decision will be reversed."

The Court of Appeals meets in October. Until then there will be no boxing matches at Fort Erle. the Court of Appeal of the Province of On-

PHILADELPHIA (N. L.), 15: BROOKLYN, 10.

There were all sorts of ball playing in yesterday's game between the Brooklyns and Philadelphias. It was a jumble of hitting and base running and error making of ten innings, and as the Brooklyns did all of the errormaking they were beaten. Twenty-two men took part in the slip-shod struggle, including Gleason, who was put out of the game for kicking, and Mitchell, who was batted out of the box. The fingers of the Brooklyn fielders were all thumbs, but notwithstanding this they were even with the Quakers after nine innings of toil and blunders. In the tenth the Philadelphias fell on the home team with renewed vigor and won the game. Hulswitt opened fire with his third hit, Garvin could not get Dooin's gentle tap, Duggleby singled and so did Thomas, Dahlen messed up Wolverton's grounder and Barry singled. Five runs came in, and the Brooklyns offered but a feeble attack in their half of the additional session.

NUCKOLS DRIVES QUEEN OF SPADES ACROSS THE TRACK.

Horses and Drivers Thrown but Escape Without Injury-Elastic Pointer and Joe Pointer Win-Good Sport at Cleveland Grand Circuit Meeting. CLEVELAND, July 28 .- A crowd of 5,000 persons attended the racing on the second day of Cleveland's betless Grand Circuit meeting. Fields were larger than on Monday and the sport was again of a high character. In the second heat of the 2:16 pace Vance Nuckols cut across the track at the first turn with Queen of Spades. Hal Patron and John W. Patterson ran into Queen of Spades, and horses and drivers were thrown, all escaping without njury. Queen of Spades was distanced for Billy Buck, driven by Geers, won his third straight victory in nine days, when he beat a small and indifferent field in the 2:14 trot. Joymaker and Norrie divided second and third money without forcing the winner to anything like his real speed. Elastic Pointer led his field by six lengths in the first heat of the 2:23 pace only to tire in the stretch and go back, coming dangerously near defeat by Mary Anna. In the second heat he went a steadier mile and had speed left for the drive home, in which Hal Chaffin outfooted Mary Anna for the place.

The second Pointer horse to win was Joe Pointer. He paced his second heat in the fastest time he has ever shown, and was clearly in better form than Allerson, the gray horse, who forced him out. After Bernalda, on her first start of the year, had won a heat in the 2:17 trot in close to 2:10, she went to a break and narrowly escaped the distance flag. Fan Foran, a Chicago entry, went on and won in hard drives, with The General and Prince Greenlander as her chief contenders. straight victory in nine days, when he beat BOSTON, July 28.—All the favorites scored victories to-day at the Old Saugus racecourse. The day's programme was marred in the second heat of the 2:25 trot by J. Ward's twist service worked wonderfully well, bothering Larned considerably. Ward won the first four games almost before his opponent got down to his game. He lost the next and won the sixth game, making the score 5-1. Larned made a brilliant stand. and by clever work at the net and on pretty place shots into the corners and along the side lines won the next three, all of which were deuce games. The tenth game was a hard battle, and several times Larned was within a point of making the games all even, but finally lost at 10-8 and also the set at 6-4. Ward began the second as though he was Ward began the second as though he was going to make quick work of his opponent. He won the first two games, and, beginning the ninth, had the score 5-3. Again Larned made an excellent stand and captured the following three games, but lost the next. He won the thirteenth and fourteenth, however, and the set.

The third set was a see-saw from the start. After the sixth game the lead alternated to the fifteenth game, when Ward won this and the next and the set.

In the fourth set Larned got the first three games, lost the fourth, and after this point the result was never in doubt. Larned got the set at 6-3. The final set was easy for the national champion.
